NanoVox — Corpus v9 · Transcripts, batch 5 (C-0251 to C-0300 of 600)

Every caller_ref resolves to a record in the v9 Member Master or Employer Contacts; the name spoken is the name on that record; a broker named aloud is that employer's broker of record; a tagged product line is one the group holds. Carrier is held per line on the Employer Master and is deliberately not spoken. Employer, industry, group size and renewal month join from caller_ref and are not repeated here.

Nicole: Choice Administrators, Nicole speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Victor: Victor Nkemdi, CB-7700062. Patricia Nunez's summary says my exam and frames reset every twelve months. I just want to confirm before I book.

Nicole: Let me check your design rather than the general rule... exam every twelve months, frames every twelve months as well on yours. Last exam was the second of June last year.

Victor: So I'm clear to go now.

Nicole: You're clear for both. One thing the summary won't say: it's glasses or contacts in the period, not both. If you're thinking of contacts, decide before you choose frames.

Victor: Glasses only.

Nicole: Then book it. Ask the practice for a benefit breakdown before they order and you'll know your share before you choose a frame.

Victor: That's all I needed. Her summary was right, then.

Nicole: It was. It's the reason this took four minutes.

Farrah: Let me look you up by name... Oscar Foster, Bellwether. Last exam the fourteenth of July last year, frames taken the same day, and you're on the VSP design with a hundred and thirty frame allowance.

EMPLOYER · CON-109 | RESOLVED | score 87/100 | agent AGT-02|Carlos Mendez

Carlos: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Carlos speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

> Dmitri: Dmitri Jaramillo, CON-109. Six of my people have been turned away by their own dentists this month. Anthony Salerno told us the DeltaCare plan lets you see anyone.

Carlos: Then I need to correct that, and I'm sorry it's reached you this way. DeltaCare USA is an HMO. Each member has an assigned dentist, and care anywhere else isn't covered except in an emergency.

> Dmitri: He said it was the same as the PPO but cheaper.

Carlos: It's cheaper because it isn't the same. You offer both, so anyone who wants free choice can move to the Delta PPO — but that's a change at renewal, not today.

> Dmitri: And today?

Carlos: Today, each of the six can ask the carrier to reassign them to a dentist of their choice, provided that dentist is in the DeltaCare network. Some of them will find their own dentist already is.

> Dmitri: How would they know?

Carlos: Ask the practice whether they take DeltaCare USA specifically — not Delta Dental generally. Different networks, and that's where most of the confusion comes from.

> Dmitri: This is the second thing he's got wrong for us this year.

Carlos: I can see the first one on your account. I'm recording this as a second broker conduct item, not a service query — two misstatements to one client is a pattern.

> Dmitri: Can you give me something for the six?

Carlos: A one-pager on how the DHMO works and how to change assigned dentist, written for employees. Going out today.

Quincy: I'm calling about a claim for Quincy Okonjo — glasses.

Tiffany: Quincy Okonjo, Meridian... the claim paid on the eighteenth. Frame two hundred and ten, allowance one thirty, so eighty on the frame, plus a twenty-five copay and forty-five on an anti-reflective coating. A hundred and fifty total to the member.

Quincy: That matches what was paid at the counter.

Tiffany: Then it's all settled.

Quincy: Can you also tell me when the contacts benefit resets? It's for the same person.

Tiffany: Glasses were taken this period, so contacts aren't available until next June.

Quincy: Okay. Thanks.

Tiffany: Anything else?

Quincy: No.

> Quill: Quill Lindqvist, CON-107. We've four new starters choosing between the two dental plans and they keep asking me which is better. I don't know what to say.

Adaeze: Don't say which is better — say what each is for. The DHMO has low fixed copays but an assigned dentist and California-only care. The PPO lets them see anyone and travels, at a higher cost share.

> Quill: So it depends on whether they care about choosing their dentist.

Adaeze: That, and whether they travel or might move. Those two questions decide it for most people.

> Quill: And if they pick wrong?

Adaeze: They're in it until renewal, unless they move somewhere the plan doesn't serve. That's the thing to say before they sign, not after.

> Quill: Is there anything written I can give them?

Adaeze: A side-by-side of the two designs for your group. I'll send it today so they're choosing from the document rather than from you.

> Quill: That's much easier. Thank you.

Hugo: Sensible timing. Your design's annual maximum is twenty visits, shared between chiropractic and acupuncture.

Anouk: That's easy enough.

Hugo: I'll send you the maximum and the reset date so you have them in front of you when you talk to him.

EMPLOYER · CON-107 | PARTIALLY RESOLVED | score 80/100 | agent AGT-07|Linda Braithwaite

Linda: Choice Administrators, Linda speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Quill: Quill Lindqvist, CON-107. One of my staff chose the DHMO and now wants the PPO. Patricia Nunez said to check with you whether it's allowed mid-year.

Linda: She's right to send you to us. Mid-year plan changes are only allowed on a qualifying event — a move out of the service area, for example.

Quill: He hasn't moved. He just doesn't like the dentist.

Linda: Then the plan change waits for renewal, but the dentist doesn't. He can ask the carrier to reassign him to another DeltaCare dentist at any time.

Quill: He'll say that's not the same thing.

Linda: It isn't, and I won't pretend it is. It fixes the dentist, not the network.

Quill: When's the window?

Linda: Your anniversary is the first of January, so December.

Quill: I'll tell him.

Linda: I'll send the reassignment process so he has something to do now rather than wait four months.

Priya: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Priya speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Kamal: Kamal Fontaine, CB-7700088. My dentist says my cover is on hold. I pay every month through my wages.

Priya: I can't go into your employer's account with you, but I can tell you what it means for you, which is the part that matters.

Kamal: Please.

Priya: Your group is in a grace period. During it, your cover hasn't ended, but claims are held rather than paid until the group's premium is received.

Kamal: So if I get treated?

Priya: If the premium arrives within the grace period, held claims pay as normal. If it doesn't, the cover ends at the end of the last paid month and those claims wouldn't pay.

Kamal: When does the grace period end?

Priya: In about three weeks. If your treatment can wait until then, that's the safer choice.

Kamal: It's a filling. It can wait.

Priya: Then I'd wait, and I'd ask your HR team directly whether the premium has been sent. That's the only question that decides this.

Kamal: I will. Thank you for actually explaining it.

Wilhelmina: I'm calling for my mum, Wilhelmina Chigozie. She wants to know how much her life cover is.

Tiffany: Wilhelmina Chigozie, Foxglove... her benefit is forty thousand, and it reduces to twenty-six thousand at sixty-five. She's sixty-three, so that's in March of next year.

Wilhelmina: And who's the beneficiary?

Tiffany: You'd be — Grace Chigozie, one hundred percent.

Wilhelmina: That's me. Great, she'll be relieved.

Tiffany: Anything else?

Wilhelmina: No, that's everything.

Gideon: Gideon Hollis, CON-106. Staff are asking whether cleanings eat into the annual maximum.

Kayla: Everything counts toward the maximum.

Gideon: Everything? A few of them were told otherwise.

Kayla: The maximum is the total the plan pays.

Gideon: So cleanings reduce it.

Kayla: All covered services count.

Gideon: That's not what the benefit summary seems to say.

Kayla: It's the standard approach.

Grace: Choice Administrators, Grace speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Sandra: Sandra Nasser, CON-104. An employee has married and wants to add her husband's son. Is a stepchild eligible?

Grace: Yes — stepchildren are eligible dependents on the same basis as the employee's own children, up to twenty-six.

Sandra: Any paperwork?

Grace: The marriage is the qualifying event, so the enrolment has to be in within sixty days of it. If it's before the sixteenth of the month the cover dates from the marriage.

Sandra: They married on the third.

Grace: Then if it's in before the sixteenth, cover from the third for both husband and son.

Sandra: And if it's later?

Grace: First of the following month. Still fine, just a gap in between.

Sandra: I'll get it in this week.

Grace: Good. I'll send the rule so she knows the dates.

Sarah: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Sarah speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

> Grace: Grace Ortega, CB-7700005. I bought glasses out of network in April because Marcus Trent said any optician was fine. Twelve weeks and nothing.

Sarah: Two things there. Out of network is allowed, but it's reimbursed against a schedule rather than the in-network benefit — he should have said that. And twelve weeks is too long for any claim.

> Grace: So what's happening with it?

Sarah: Received on the ninth of April, pending since. I can't see why from here, which is exactly why I'm not leaving it as a status enquiry.

> Grace: Meaning?

Sarah: Twelve weeks is past the point where asking again helps. I'm escalating it to the carrier's claims team as an aged claim with a named owner, so a person reviews it rather than a queue.

> Grace: Will I hear?

Sarah: You'll have the reference in an hour. If you've heard nothing in ten working days, reply to that email and it comes back to me.

> Grace: Anything I can do my end?

Sarah: Check whether the receipt was itemised — frame and lenses separately. A combined receipt is the commonest reason out-of-network vision claims stall.

> Grace: It was one total.

Sarah: Then get an itemised copy from the optician and I'll attach it to the escalation.

Terrence: Terrence Jaramillo, CB-7700065. Anthony Salerno told our whole office we'd get glasses and contacts every year. The optician says it's one or the other.

Hugo: The optician is right. It's glasses or contacts in a benefit period, not both. Taking one uses the hardware benefit for the period.

Terrence: He was very clear about it.

Hugo: I'm sure he was. It's not right, and I'm recording it — he'll have said it to the room, not just you.

Terrence: So what do I do? I wear both.

Hugo: Take whichever you'd pay more for through the plan, and use the twenty percent discount on the other. It runs twelve months from your exam at any VSP doctor.

Terrence: Which is usually more expensive?

Hugo: For most people glasses, especially with progressive lenses. But ask the optician to price both before you choose.

Terrence: That's a better answer than I expected.

Hugo: I'll send you the rule and the discount terms.

Danielle: He can't opt out of employer-paid life, but I understand that doesn't make the conversation easier.

> Ahmed: What happens if he won't sign?

Danielle: The form carries his beneficiary designation as much as his enrolment. Without it he's still required to be covered, but there's no named beneficiary.

> Ahmed: So refusing only hurts his family.

Danielle: That's the honest way to put it to him. It costs him nothing and the only effect of not signing is that whoever he'd want to benefit may not.

> Ahmed: Can you enrol him without a signature?

Danielle: That I can't answer today — whether the carrier accepts an employer attestation instead of his signature is their call, not mine. I'll find out rather than guess.

> Ahmed: Please.

Danielle: I'll come back to you this week. In the meantime I'd put the beneficiary point to him.

Carlos: I can't discuss your employer's account in detail, but I can tell you what's happening to you and I'm not going to pretend it's only you.

Bethany: Go on.

Carlos: Your group is in a grace period. Your cover hasn't ended, but claims are held until the premium arrives. If it arrives in time they pay; if it doesn't, cover ends at the last paid month.

Bethany: Nobody told us any of that.

Carlos: No. Members aren't notified when a group enters grace, which is why you're hearing it from a dentist. I'm logging that.

Bethany: Four of us that I know of.

Carlos: Then this isn't a member query any more, it's an account one. I'm escalating it today to Account Management with a named owner, flagged as affecting multiple members, so somebody speaks to your employer rather than each of you ringing us.

Bethany: And my treatment?

Carlos: If it can wait three weeks, wait. If it can't, go ahead and keep the receipt — if the premium lands, the claim pays.

Bethany: It can wait.

Carlos: Then wait. Reference in your inbox within the hour.

Sunil: Sunil Quiroga, CON-103. Four new hires I entered on the portal in June aren't showing as covered.

Adaeze: Let me look at all four together rather than one at a time... all four were accepted and all four failed validation the next day. The hours field was blank.

Sunil: It said submitted.

Adaeze: It says submitted and stops, which is the problem. Nothing tells you when a submission fails. You're not the first employer this month.

Sunil: So they've been uncovered since June.

Adaeze: Their effective dates were the first of July, so yes, not enrolled since then. I'll enter all four now with the hours from you, backdated to the first of July since the failure was in the submission, not their eligibility.

Sunil: You can backdate it?

Adaeze: For a validation failure on a timely submission, yes. It's a correction, not a late enrolment.

Sunil: Twenty hours for all four.

Adaeze: Entered and applied. And I'm logging the portal behaviour again — a submission that fails silently is the actual defect.

Sunil: Thank you. That's four people I'd have let down.

Oscar: So mine paid less because hers paid too?

Nicole: Mine paid what it would have paid anyway. Hers paid on top. Between them you should have paid less than with one plan.

Oscar: I did pay less, I suppose.

Michael: Choice Administrators, Michael speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Ewan: Ewan Winters, CB-7700087. Denise Whitfield told us there was no waiting period on anything. I've been refused a crown.

Michael: On your design there's a twelve-month wait on major services from your effective date. Basic and preventive have none, which may be what she meant, but crowns are major.

Ewan: She said nothing.

Michael: I'm recording it. When did you join?

Ewan: November.

Michael: Then the first of November this year. Did you have dental immediately before?

Ewan: Yes, at my last job, for three years.

Michael: Then there's a takeover credit that could waive the wait — twelve consecutive months of comparable prior cover. You'd need a certificate of coverage from your old carrier.

Ewan: So I might not have to wait at all.

Michael: You might not. Get the certificate and send it to me, and I'll submit it.

Ewan: That's a completely different answer. Thank you.

Quentin: It's about a bill for Quentin Haddad.

Tiffany: Quentin Haddad, Fontaine... two fillings on the twelfth of August, copay twenty-five each on the DeltaCare schedule, so fifty total. There's also a root canal pending authorisation for October.

Quentin: The bill's for fifty, so that's right.

Tiffany: That's correct, then.

Quentin: And the root canal?

Tiffany: Authorisation should come through before the appointment.

Quentin: Okay, thanks.

Tiffany: Anything else?

Quentin: No.

> Ingrid: Ingrid Zielinski, CB-7700007. I've been told I've used all twenty visits. I've had fourteen. Marcus Trent said there was no limit anyway.

Priya: There is a limit — twenty, shared with acupuncture — so he was wrong about that, and I'm recording it. But if you've had fourteen, you shouldn't have been refused.

> Ingrid: I keep a diary. Fourteen.

Priya: Any acupuncture?

> Ingrid: None.

Priya: Then either visits from someone else have been posted to you or a visit's been counted twice. I can see the refusal but not the carrier's count behind it.

> Ingrid: So what happens?

Priya: I'm escalating it to the carrier as a count dispute, with your fourteen dates attached if you send them to me. A person compares the two lists.

> Ingrid: I can send them tonight.

Priya: Then reply to the email I'm about to send with the dates. Keep your next appointment; if the count's corrected, it pays.

> Ingrid: Thank you.

Linda: Choice Administrators, Linda speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Blythe: Blythe Arellano, CB-7700004. I've been told I need an implant. Is it covered?

Linda: On your design implants are a major service, covered at a percentage and subject to your annual maximum. What I can't tell you is how your particular treatment will be coded.

Blythe: Why does that matter?

Linda: Because an implant is often several procedures — the post, the abutment, the crown — and each is coded separately. Some parts can fall outside.

Blythe: So the total could be anything.

Linda: It could vary a lot. The way to find out is a pretreatment estimate from your dentist before starting.

Blythe: How long does that take?

Linda: Two to three weeks.

Blythe: And my maximum's fifteen hundred?

Linda: Fifteen hundred, and an implant can use all of it. Worth asking whether the treatment can straddle two plan years.

Blythe: I'll ask for the estimate.

Linda: Ask for it by name. I'll send you your maximum and what's used.

> Aurelio: He was quite insistent.

James: Then he's insistent and mistaken. I'll put it in writing so you're not choosing between two voices.

> Aurelio: Is there any version that would cover them?

James: A different arrangement at renewal might, and that's a sales conversation, not something I can quote. The plan you hold today doesn't.

James: I can see the earlier two. I'm recording this as a third conduct item against the agency, which is past the point of an individual slip.

Grace: Choice Administrators, Grace speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Quentin: Quentin Sarkisian, CB-7700058. My eye exam was refused. I've had one every year.

Grace: Let me look... it was billed with a medical diagnosis code rather than as a routine exam. That's why vision refused it.

Quentin: I went for a normal test.

Grace: Then either it was coded wrongly or the optometrist found something and coded it medically. Did they mention anything?

Quentin: They said my pressure was a bit high.

Grace: Then the medical coding may be deliberate. That belongs to your medical plan, not vision.

Quentin: I don't have medical through Choice.

Grace: Then it goes to whoever does cover you medically. If it was a routine exam wrongly coded, the practice can rebill it as routine and vision will pay.

Quentin: How do I know which?

Grace: Ask the practice which it was. I can't see their notes, and I'd rather send you to the people who can.

Quentin: Fair enough.

Nicole: It's a budget, not a discount. The plan pays up to the allowance and the member pays everything above it.

Nicole: The simplest line I've heard is: pick a frame under the allowance and it's free apart from the copay; go over and you pay the difference.

Sandra: That's clear.

Hugo: Online retailers are usually out of network, so you'd pay in full and claim back against the out-of-network schedule.

Hugo: Less than in network — the schedule pays fixed amounts. On a cheap online pair it can still work out well.

Uma: What do I need?

Hugo: An itemised receipt with frame and lenses priced separately, and your prescription. A single total is the commonest reason these claims stall.

Uma: And my exam?

Hugo: Have it in network first, get the prescription, then buy wherever you like.

Uma: Perfect. Thanks.

> Lorna: Some of them were told everything counts.

Danielle: Then they were told wrong, and I'm sorry. I can see at least two calls this month where that was said. I'm logging it against the knowledge base rather than the individuals, because the fact it keeps happening says the article is unclear.

Priya: Held claims release once the premium posts. Yours hasn't released yet, which it should have.

Grace: How long?

Priya: That's the part I can't give you a date for — the release sits with claims processing. I can see it's still held and shouldn't be.

Grace: Can you push it?

Priya: I'm raising it with claims today as a held claim that should have released. It's a specific fix, not a general enquiry.

Grace: And if it doesn't?

Priya: Ring me in ten working days and I'll escalate it. Keep the receipt either way.

Kayla: Choice Administrators, Kayla speaking, this call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Quentin: Quentin Thibault, CON-101. The new invoice format has dropped the per-employee breakdown. I need it for our cost allocation.

Kayla: The invoice shows totals by line.

Quentin: It used to show every employee.

Kayla: The format was updated.

Quentin: Can I get the old detail?

Kayla: It's not available on the current format.

Quentin: Can I speak to someone in billing or a supervisor about it?

Kayla: There's nobody free for invoice formats.

Quentin: We allocate cost by department. We need it.

Kayla: I can note the request.

REPEAT CONTACT — follows C-0207 | 20 Aug | closed partially resolved

Tony: Choice Administrators, Tony speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Xavier: Xavier Arellano, CB-7700051. I rang in August about changing dentist and a referral. I changed dentist. The referral has vanished.

Tony: Let me look. I can see the new assigned dentist.

Xavier: And the referral?

Tony: There isn't an active referral.

Xavier: Because it was tied to the old dentist.

Tony: Referrals come from the assigned dentist.

Xavier: Which I was warned might happen, and nobody told me what to do about it.

Tony: The new dentist would need to submit a new one.

Xavier: From scratch? After five weeks?

Tony: It'd be a new referral.

Xavier: Is there any way to carry the old one over?

Tony: Let me check. Bear with me.

[waits]

[hold 2m 10s] Thanks for holding. It would need resubmitting.

Xavier: Can I speak to a supervisor? This is my second call and the first one warned me and did nothing.

Tony: There isn't anyone available.

Xavier: Then I'm starting again.

Tony: I can note it.

Michael: Choice Administrators, Michael speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training.

Duncan: Hi, Duncan Bakri at Meridian. Stephen Vaught said we get glasses and contacts. Can I get contacts?

Michael: Let me find you... Duncan Bakri. You took glasses in April, two hundred and twenty with progressive lenses, and your wife took contacts in May. So neither of you has a hardware benefit until next spring.

Duncan: He said we'd get both.

Michael: It's one or the other per period. He was wrong about that.

Duncan: Okay. Thanks for checking.

Michael: You're welcome.

C-0300 — Life & Beneficiary

Fri 25 Sep 2026 09:33 · AHT 6m 20s · Competent but constrained · rules C-34

MEMBER · CB-7700098 | RESOLVED | score 84/100 | agent AGT-11|Grace Adeyemi

Grace: Choice Administrators, Grace speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Tarquin: Tarquin Okonjo, CB-7700098. I retire at the end of October. Does my life cover stop?

Grace: The group cover stops, but you have the right to convert it to an individual policy with no medical questions — within thirty-one days of the group cover ending.

Tarquin: When does it end?

Grace: End of the month following your last day, so the thirtieth of November. Your window then runs to the thirty-first of December.

Tarquin: Over Christmas.

Grace: Which is exactly when people miss it. I'd apply in November rather than wait.

Tarquin: Will it be expensive?

Grace: Individual whole life at your age usually costs more than group cover — I can't quote it, the carrier does. You'd decide with the figure in front of you.

Tarquin: Nobody at work has mentioned this.

Grace: The notice is your employer's to give, and it's often missed. I'll send you the conversion request with your window date on the front.

Tarquin: Thank you.
