NanoVox — Corpus v9 · Transcripts, batch 6 (C-0301 to C-0350 of 600)

Every caller_ref resolves to a record in the v9 Member Master or Employer Contacts; the name spoken is the name on that record; a broker named aloud is that employer's broker of record; a tagged product line is one the group holds. Carrier is held per line on the Employer Master and is deliberately not spoken. Employer, industry, group size and renewal month join from caller_ref and are not repeated here.

Wilhelmina: Wilhelmina Okonkwo, CB-7700052. Am I due an eye test?

Nicole: Let me check... last exam the ninth of June last year, so yes, you're due now.

Wilhelmina: And glasses?

Nicole: Frames on your design run every twenty-four months, so not until next June. Lenses run every twelve, so if your prescription changes, new lenses in your current frames are covered.

Wilhelmina: I didn't know you could just replace the lenses.

Nicole: Most people don't. Ask the optician to reglaze.

Wilhelmina: Perfect. Thanks.

Danielle: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Danielle speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Vera: Vera Villalobos, CON-112. I'll be straight with you. Our owner has asked me to get quotes from other administrators before January.

Danielle: Thank you for saying it plainly. Can I ask what's driving it?

Vera: Cost mainly. And we've had admin headaches.

Danielle: On cost, the lever you control is contribution, and that can only change at renewal — within thirty days of your first of January anniversary. So the window is December either way.

Vera: And the headaches?

Danielle: That I can't fix on one call, and I won't pretend otherwise. What I can do is make sure somebody who can actually address them talks to you before you've decided, rather than after.

Vera: Meaning?

Danielle: I'm routing this to Account Management today as a renewal at risk, with what you've told me attached. A named person, not a queue.

Vera: Fine. I'm still getting quotes.

Danielle: That's your right, and it's better you compare with the full picture. You'll hear from them this week.

Aurelio: Aurelio Pryor, CON-110.

Adaeze: Thanks Aurelio.

Aurelio: We're thinking of adding life cover for our staff. What's involved?

Adaeze: Three things to know first. Life is employer-sponsored only — one hundred percent employer-paid and one hundred percent participation. There's no employee-paid version.

Aurelio: So we pay for all ninety-five.

Adaeze: Everyone eligible for dental, including anyone who waived dental. Second, it's added once a year at renewal, so February is your window.

Aurelio: And third?

Adaeze: If you elect above the guaranteed issue amount, every employee completes a health statement. Most groups stay at or below it in the first year.

Aurelio: Who gives me a price?

Adaeze: Your broker or our sales team. I'm noting the interest on the account so it doesn't depend on anyone remembering.

Aurelio: Good. Send me those rules.

Quentin: Quentin Thibault, CON-101.

James: Thanks Quentin.

Quentin: Our board wants to add life cover at the January renewal. Four hundred and twenty people. Where do I start?

James: With the budget, because life here is one hundred percent employer-paid and one hundred percent participation. At your size that's a real number.

Quentin: We understand it's employer-paid.

James: Then the next thing is timing. Life can be added once a year at renewal, and forms have to be in a month before your anniversary — the first of December.

Quentin: And the price?

James: That's the part I can't give you — it comes from sales or your broker. I'll flag the interest today so they come to you rather than wait.

Quentin: Please do.

James: And I'll send the participation and timing rules so the board is looking at the right constraints.

Linda: Received on the twentieth of May, still pending. Too long, and I can't see why from here — the detail sits with the carrier.

Aurelio: So what now?

Linda: I'll raise a status enquiry so a person looks at it. And one check your end: was the receipt itemised, frame and lenses separately?

Aurelio: It was one total.

Linda: That's the most common reason it stalls. Get an itemised copy from the optician and send it in with the enquiry reference.

Aurelio: I'll do that.

Michael: Crowns are major services on your design — covered at a lower percentage, and after a twelve-month waiting period from your effective date.

Wilhelmina: So both halves were wrong.

Michael: Both halves. I'm recording it.

Wilhelmina: I joined in February.

Michael: Then February next year, unless you had comparable dental right before joining — then a takeover credit could waive it.

Wilhelmina: I didn't.

Wilhelmina: Thanks for being straight.

> Gideon: Gideon Nkemdi, CON-108. I've had five staff complaints about the DHMO this month — assigned dentists they didn't choose, referrals that go nowhere.

Priya: That's a pattern, not five individual problems, and I'd rather treat it that way.

> Gideon: It's a pattern that has my director asking whether we should look elsewhere at January.

Priya: Understood, and I'm taking that seriously rather than noting it. Two things. For the five now: any of them can be reassigned to another DeltaCare dentist at any time, and anyone who wants free choice can move to the Delta PPO at renewal.

> Gideon: And the referrals?

Priya: Those I can't fix from here in one call. I'm routing your account to Account Management today as a renewal at risk, with the five complaints attached, so somebody looks at the pattern before December.

> Gideon: Will they actually call?

Priya: A named person this week. I'll also send a one-page DHMO explainer you can give staff now.

Aurelio: Aurelio Pryor, CON-110. Following up on adding life. The board's agreed in principle.

Grace: Thanks Aurelio.

Aurelio: One question: twelve of our people waived dental. Are they in or out of life?

Grace: In. Everyone eligible for dental must be enrolled in life, whether or not they took dental.

Aurelio: So we're pricing ninety-five, not eighty-three.

Grace: Ninety-five. It's the most common thing groups get wrong at this stage.

Aurelio: Good job I asked.

Grace: And when you enrol, each of the twelve needs a life form of their own — the dental waiver doesn't cover it.

Aurelio: Noted. I'll get the quote updated.

Grace: I'll add that to the note on the account.

Danielle: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Danielle speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Yolanda: Yolanda Chigozie, CB-7700086. I rang a fortnight ago because the dentist said my cover was suspended. I was told to ask my employer. They don't know either.

Danielle: Then let me explain what it means for you, because that's what you needed the first time. Your group is in a grace period. Your cover hasn't ended; claims are held until the premium arrives.

Yolanda: So if I go?

Danielle: If the premium lands within the grace period, the claim pays. If not, cover ends at the last paid month.

Yolanda: When does it end?

Danielle: In about ten days. If your treatment can wait, wait. If not, keep the receipt.

Yolanda: It can wait.

Danielle: Then wait, and I'm noting on your record that you called twice so the next person doesn't send you back to your employer.

Carlos: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Carlos speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Gideon: Gideon Hollis, CON-106.

Carlos: Thanks Gideon.

Gideon: Stephen Vaught has suggested we add chiropractic as a voluntary benefit. I want to check the details.

Carlos: It can't be voluntary. Chiropractic is one hundred percent employer-paid and one hundred percent participation on this programme.

Gideon: He said employees would pay.

Carlos: That isn't an option that exists, and I'm recording what he said. At two hundred and forty, it's a meaningful cost.

Gideon: Anything else?

Carlos: Landmark's insured plans are California only, so anyone out of state gets nothing. And it's added once a year at renewal — March for you.

Gideon: Everyone's in California.

Carlos: Then that's not your problem. I'll note the interest and send the rules so the pricing conversation starts correctly.

Linda: Choice Administrators, Linda speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Emeka: Emeka Abernathy, CB-7700011. My dentist did a temporary filling on a broken tooth. Is it covered? I'm still inside the waiting period for a crown.

Linda: A temporary restoration is usually a basic service, and basic isn't subject to the major-service wait. So it should be covered.

Emeka: Should?

Linda: It depends how he coded it. If it went in as part of crown prep it could be treated as major.

Emeka: How do I find out?

Linda: The claim will say. If it's denied as major, ask him to check the code.

Emeka: Okay. Fair enough.

Sunil: Sunil Baptiste, CON-111. Second call about three leaver credits. Now we've had a grace-period notice, and my staff's claims are being held.

Ryan: Let me look. There's a note from July.

Sunil: What happened with it?

Ryan: It's noted.

Sunil: Were the credits raised?

Ryan: I can see an adjustment line.

Sunil: For three leavers?

Ryan: It's an adjustment.

Sunil: Look, we short-paid because we were told credits were coming. Now there's a balance and our people can't get treated.

Ryan: Payment should be made as billed.

Sunil: If this isn't sorted I'm recommending we leave at renewal. Can I speak to a manager?

Ryan: There's nobody available.

Sunil: Then note that I said it.

Ryan: I'll add a note.

Sarah: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Sarah speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Maya: Maya Dubois, CB-7700061. I was billed six hundred by an endodontist my dentist referred me to. Last time I was told to appeal to the carrier and hung up on, more or less.

Sarah: I'm sorry. Let me do it properly. On your plan a specialist needs two things: a referral from your assigned dentist and an authorisation from Delta Dental. Your dentist gave the first, not the second.

Maya: Nobody explained there were two.

Sarah: No, and that's our failure as much as his. Here's what I'm doing. I'm submitting a retrospective authorisation request with your dentist's referral attached, as an escalation rather than leaving you to appeal alone.

Maya: Will it work?

Sarah: It often does where the referral was genuine and the specialist was in network. I can't promise it.

Maya: And the bill in the meantime?

Sarah: Tell the practice a review is open and ask them to hold it. The reference will be in your inbox within the hour.

Maya: Thank you. That's what I needed last time.

Michael: Not January. That's the date most groups miss.

Duncan: What can we change?

Michael: Contribution, waiting period, minimum hours, and moving lines between voluntary and employer-sponsored. Those are renewal-only.

Duncan: Good. Send me the timeline.

Elena: There's a frame allowance and a contact lens allowance on the plan.

Emeka: So both.

Elena: Both are listed.

Emeka: Can I use both this year?

Elena: Let me check. Bear with me.

[hold 2m 20s] Thanks for holding. The allowances are listed separately.

Emeka: Separately meaning both usable?

Elena: They're separate allowances.

Emeka: Then why is the optician refusing?

Elena: They may be reading it differently.

Emeka: Which reading is right?

Elena: I'd go by what the optician's system says.

Emeka: So the optician's system knows my benefit better than you do.

Elena: They'd see the claim rules.

Emeka: Right.

Vera: Vera Villalobos, CON-112.

Adaeze: Thanks Vera.

Vera: We only have dental. Staff keep asking for vision. Denise Whitfield says we have to wait for January.

Adaeze: You don't. Employer-sponsored vision can be added at any point in the year. Chiro and life are the ones tied to renewal.

Vera: So we could start in October.

Adaeze: October, effective the first of a month with forms in ahead of it. Employer-sponsored needs seventy percent participation; voluntary has no minimum at all.

Vera: Voluntary would be easier while we're reviewing costs.

Adaeze: It removes any participation risk. Rates come from your broker or sales — I'm noting the interest on the account, and recording that you were told it had to wait.

Vera: Thank you. That's the first good news this quarter.

Kirsten: Can you tell me?

Linda: The cap I can send you. The used amount sits with the carrier, and it's live, so I'd rather you get it from them than from me.

Kirsten: I had x-rays in March.

Linda: Then there's a fair chance some of the cap is used. Ask the chiropractor whether the new set is needed now or can wait until the plan year resets.

Kirsten: Okay. Send me the cap.

Linda: Going out today.

Sarah: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Sarah speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Sunil: Sunil Quiroga, CON-103. Three more new hires entered on the portal in August haven't applied. This is the second time in a month.

Sarah: Let me look... all three failed validation — a date field in the wrong format. Same pattern as last time, different field.

Sunil: And nothing told us.

Sarah: Nothing told you, again. I'll enter all three now and backdate them to their effective dates.

Sunil: I'll be honest, the owner has asked me to price other administrators for January. This is a big part of why.

Sarah: Understood, and I'm not going to argue you out of it on the phone. I'm escalating two things today: the portal defect to Digital as a repeat failure on your group, and your account to Account Management as a renewal at risk.

Sunil: Will anyone actually fix the portal?

Sarah: I can't promise a date. I can promise it's been raised as a defect with your two cases attached, not as a note.

Sunil: Fine.

Dagny: Dagny Fraser, CB-7700085. I called in August about a held claim and nobody could tell me anything.

Priya: I can now. Your group's premium was received within the grace period, so your cover continued. Your June claim was released and paid on the twenty-eighth.

Dagny: So I don't owe anything.

Priya: Only your normal share, which is on the explanation of benefits. The hold was never about you.

Dagny: I wish someone had said that in August.

Priya: So do I. I'm noting that the earlier answer wasn't good enough.

Dagny: Thank you.

Lorna: Lorna Sarkisian, CON-105. In August I asked about voluntary life and was told there was a voluntary option. I've been waiting for details that never came.

Danielle: They never came because it doesn't exist, and I'm sorry you were told it did. Life on this programme is employer-sponsored only, one hundred percent employer-paid, one hundred percent participation.

Lorna: So if we want it, we pay for all two hundred and forty.

Danielle: Everyone eligible for dental, yes. It's added once a year at renewal, so March for you, with forms by the first of February.

Lorna: That changes the budget completely.

Danielle: It does, which is why you needed this answer a month ago. I'm logging the earlier misstatement against the knowledge base.

Lorna: Can we still go ahead?

Danielle: Rates come from sales or your broker. I'll note the interest so they contact you with the correct structure.

Lorna: Please do.

Carlos: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Carlos speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Xavier: Xavier Arellano, CB-7700051. Third call. My specialist referral vanished when I changed dentist.

Carlos: I've read the two earlier calls. Nobody should have let you change dentist without telling you what would happen to the referral. That's on us.

Xavier: So what now?

Carlos: I'm escalating a priority re-authorisation with the original referral attached, so the new dentist doesn't start from zero. Named owner, today.

Xavier: How long?

Carlos: I won't promise a date I don't control, but priority means days, not weeks. And I'm logging that referrals don't transfer on a dentist change, because it'll happen to others.

Xavier: Thank you. Finally.

Carlos: Reference in your inbox within the hour.
