NanoVox — Corpus v9 · Transcripts, batch 7 (C-0351 to C-0400 of 600)

Every caller_ref resolves to a record in the v9 Member Master or Employer Contacts; the name spoken is the name on that record; a broker named aloud is that employer's broker of record; a tagged product line is one the group holds. Carrier is held per line on the Employer Master and is deliberately not spoken. Employer, industry, group size and renewal month join from caller_ref and are not repeated here.

Grace: Choice Administrators, Grace speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Ingrid: Ingrid Novak, CB-7700157. I've just had a baby. Can I name her on my life cover?

Grace: Congratulations. You can, but one thing first: an insurer won't pay a benefit directly to a minor. It would go to a court-appointed guardian.

Ingrid: So what do people do?

Grace: Commonly name a trust, or an adult who'd hold it for her. That's a legal choice, and I'm not the right person to advise on which.

Ingrid: Who's named now?

Grace: Can I confirm your date of birth first?

Ingrid: The fourth of May, 1991.

Grace: Thank you. Your partner is named, one hundred percent.

Ingrid: Then I'll leave that and speak to someone about a trust.

Grace: Sensible. I'll send the form so it's ready when you've decided.

Derek: Derek Kowalczyk, CON-118. Our crews do physical work and half of them don't know they have chiropractic. What should I tell them?

Adaeze: Three things. They self-refer — no doctor's note, no authorisation. It includes acupuncture. And there's an annual visit maximum shared between the two.

Derek: Any catch?

Adaeze: It's California only, and nothing is paid out of network. If you have crews working in Nevada or Arizona, they can only use it when they're home.

Derek: We do jobs in Reno sometimes.

Adaeze: Then say that plainly, so nobody books a Reno chiropractor expecting cover.

Derek: Can you send something I can pin up?

Adaeze: A one-pager for crews, going out today.

James: Choice Administrators, James speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and group number?

Dagny: Dagny Yamamoto, CON-115. New engineer started on the eighteenth. When is she covered?

James: Your waiting period is ninety days, so it runs to mid-October, and cover starts the first of the following month — the first of November.

Dagny: Not the eighteenth of October?

James: Always the first of the month following.

Dagny: Good to know. I'll tell her.

James: Get the form in now rather than later; it can go up to sixty days early.

Isaac: Isaac Nyberg, CB-7700105. Anthony Salerno told us implants are fully covered. I've been quoted five thousand.

Danielle: Implants aren't fully covered on any design here. On yours they're a major service, at a percentage and within your annual maximum.

Isaac: So I'd pay most of it.

Danielle: Most of it, yes. I'm recording what you were told.

Isaac: Exactly how much?

Danielle: That depends on how the work is coded, which I can't see. A pretreatment estimate gives you the figure before you commit.

Isaac: I'll ask for one.

Danielle: And ask whether it can be split across two plan years.

Danielle: File each termination on or after their last day, not before. Early submissions can't be processed and fail without telling you.

Juno: We usually file in advance.

Danielle: That's the single biggest cause of leavers staying on invoices. Their cover runs to the end of the month following, and you'll see them on one more invoice regardless.

Juno: And continuation?

Priya: Thank you for calling Choice Administrators, Priya speaking. This call may be recorded for quality and training. Name and member ID?

Yannick: Yannick Lindqvist, CB-7700146. I left in July. Someone said I could keep my life cover.

Priya: You could convert it, within thirty-one days of your group cover ending. Your cover ended the thirty-first of August.

Yannick: So the window's…

Priya: The thirtieth of September. Five days.

Yannick: Nobody told me.

Priya: That notice was your employer's to give. I'm logging it. The application has to reach the carrier by the thirtieth — I can't extend that.

Yannick: What do I do?

Priya: I'm sending the form and the carrier's number now. Call them today.

Yannick: Thank you.

Tamsin: Tamsin Whitmore, CB-7700110. My explanation of benefits has three different amounts and I don't know which I pay.

Michael: The billed amount is what the dentist charges. The allowed amount is the network price. Your responsibility is the one you pay — the rest is either paid by us or written off by the dentist.

Tamsin: So forty-six.

Michael: Forty-six. If the dentist bills more than that, call me.

Tamsin: Clear. Thanks.

Xavier: Xavier Sarkisian, CON-120. Five people who left in June are still on the September invoice.

Carlos: Let me look... all five terminations were submitted after the last day and they did apply — but the credits for July and August were never raised.

Xavier: So you have the terminations right and the money wrong.

Carlos: Exactly that. I'm escalating a reconciliation for the two months to billing with a named owner today.

Xavier: How much?

Carlos: I'll let billing confirm the figure rather than guess. It comes back as a credit on your next invoice.

Xavier: Should I short-pay?

Carlos: No — pay as billed and the credit follows. Reference within the hour.

Xavier: Thanks.
